DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Reay et al (6,018,549)

Regarding claim 3, Reay shows a device (Fig. 4, 5) for changing a termination voltage of a differential data bus, the differential data bus comprising a first data bus (101) and a second data bus (103), the device comprising:

A first adjustable termination path (115) connectable to the first data bus;

A second adjustable termination path (117) connectable to the second data bus;

and

A switch (113) connectable in parallel with the first adjustable termination path and the second adjustable termination path;

Wherein the first adjustable termination path is switchable between an open emitter pulldown (terminator switches may be implemented in bipolar transistor technology, col. 11, line 29) and matching impedance or a line to line impedance of the first data bus and the second data bus.

Regarding claim 2, Reay shows the differential data bus comprises a differential twisted pair line (inherent limitation).

The limitation of claim 4 is rejected as above claim 3.

Regarding claim 5, Reay shows the switch is a field effect transistor (col. 64-65).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 24-26, & 28-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reay et al (6,018,549). Reay disclose the claimed invention except for the transceiver implemented as ECL. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to implement the transceiver of Reay as ECL, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material (ECL, PECL, LVDS, etc.) on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 27, & 31 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 7-9, 13-23, & 32-35 are allowed.

7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: with respect to claims, in addition to other limitations in the claims, the prior art fails to teach or disclose the specifics of applicant's invention as claimed particularly the features describing the first termination path to be 50 ohms between the first data bus and a – 2vdc source or negative source.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
